AAWCC Scholarship for LEADERS Institute

The national board for the American Association for Women in Community Colleges supports the advancement of community college women into leadership positions. As a commitment to that mission the Board will award a scholarship to a national AAWCC member who works at a community college to attend the LEADERS Institute in June 2011. The AAWCC Scholarship for LEADERS will include registration and travel expenses up to a total of $3000. The following description about LEADERS is taken directly from the LEADERS Institute webpage:

The LEADERS Institute provides leadership development opportunities for women in Community Colleges across the country. Over the course of 28 years of successes, a coalition of more than 6,000 women leaders has been established.

The LEADERS Institute 2011 is a five day content-intensive, experiential workshop and is based on a recently revised curriculum which reflects AACC Core Competencies for Leadership. Tuition fees include all workshop materials, continental breakfast and lunch daily; morning and afternoon snacks, monitoring of participant projects, certificate of completion, networking access to Leaders from 1981-2011, inclusion in requests from search firms for candidate recommendations; and email notifications of career opportunities.

Graduates of LEADERS are recognized for their excellence in collaboration, encouragement and support for each other through an informal LEADERS network, appreciation that many styles of leadership co-exist, and continuing expansion of their professional talents based on a strong personal foundation. The LEADERS Institute promotes the development of leadership skills and qualities at every level in community college administration and education.
